METROPOLITAN HORSEMEN'S ASSOCIATION

JANUARY 1980

ANNUAL AWARDS

The 1979 awards are now open for nominations. This is your chance to nominate the persons you feel deserving of these outstanding awards, which will be presented at the M.H.A. Dinner Dance on February 16.

The first award is the Past President's Award, which will be awarded to the member who did the most for M.H.A. in 1979.

The second award, the President's Cup (or Siblay Cup), is for the Horseman of the Year. This award is presented by the East Bay Regional Parks to the person who has done the most for horsemen.

When you get the "green card", which is your nominating ballot, be sure to send it in. Don't let those people who have done so much for M.H.A. and the local horsemen be overlooked.

FROM THE EDITORS

Your new editors for the Trail Blazer are Carol Schneider and Margaret Vingo, and we are very excited about our new jobs for M.H.A. Our goals for 1980 are to introduce you to one another by highlighting some individuals and/or their horses each month so that you will know your fellow members on the trail or when you meet them in the arena.

We hope to to give you some valuable information from time to time on horsemanship and safety. We hope to find a way of getting those with similar interests together, whether it be in twos or as a whole group. Together, we can become an effective lobbying force to protect our trails, the future of showing, and horsekeeping.

We are looking forward to your input, whether it is questions, stories, or anecdotes about you and your horse. Keep in touch with us.

You can contact the editors at 530-7362 or 482-4128.

One of your new editors did not get the new year off to a good start. Carol's Quarter Horse, ordinarily a very quiet mount, reacted to the cold air and bucked. Carol's hard hat flew off and struck her horse in the head, causing an even more violent reaction. Carol hit the ground head first and nastily broke one of her arms and badly sprained the other. She is recuperating nicely, but it will take a while. This brings us to our first tip -- hard hats are VERY important, but they are next to useless if the chin strap isn't used. Without the strap fastened, they can come off before doing do their job of protecting your head in a fall. Carol knows this important bit of information now, but what a hard way to learn it!

JOHN LASSETER DRESSAGE CLINIC

There are still a few slots open for participation in this spectacular clinic to be held February 4 through 8. The clinic will be held at the Thompson's fine indoor arena at 14170 Skyline Blvd.

For further information or to enroll, contact Pat Walsh (530-0874 - let it ring a long time) or Anita Thompson (635-4830).

If you wish to observe, there is an observation room so that you will be comfortable. If you are only planning to observe, still contact Pat or Anita so that they will know how many to expect.

This is a very fine clinic, and we are fortunate to be able to present it to our members.

An MHA Competitive Trail Ride

The Metropolitan Horsemen's Association sponsors three competitive trail rides each year--the Claud Brandon, the Sidney Chown, and the Charlie Back, named for people who made great contributions in promoting horsemanship and trail riding in the Bay Area. The three rides are scheduled to cover spring, summer, and fall, and when you've attended all three in a year, you really learn to appreciate the changing scenery here in the Bay Area.

First and foremost, our rides are designed to be pleasure rides. There is no racing against the clock, no vet checks or P&R stops. They are, however, an excellent introduction to competitive trail riding for the novice horse and rider. Ridden at a flat footed walk, the rides take approximately three hours and may cover about 10 miles or so of leisurely trails. While neither horse nor rider need to be conditioned to a peak as one would be for NATRC or an endurance ride, you should be up to some steep trails--uphill and down--some of our local "paths" approach the vertical at times! If you and your horse are sound in wind and limb and reasonably fit, these rides should pose no problems.

What can the rider expect in the way of judging? The rider is judged on horsemanship--not show ring equitation, but a good trail riding seat and a concern for the horse's well being. Lean forward and out of the saddle going uphill, and try to stay with the horse's center of balance both uphill and down. At rest stops, check the feet for rocks, sponge your horse off if he needs it, offer water, loosen the girth for a breather (don't forget to tighten it up again); in short, make your horse comfortable. You are expected to keep up with the group--trotting may or may not be penalized, but sometimes it is unavoidable. A good rule is "never lose sight of the horse in front of you". A rider is penalized for going ahead of the trail master or falling behind the drag rider. Common courtesy is the rule. If you wish to pass a slow moving horse, announce "passing right" or

The horse will be judged on trail manners, and to some extent on his condition. You may expect to find both logs to step over and water to step through, so if your horse has trouble with this type of obstacle, you may wish to work on them at home. Especially this year, the water "obstacles" will be numerous and varied!

The primary function of these rides is to have fun--to get out on our beautiful trails and enjoy the scenery and the company of other riders. We traditionally end up at Sequoia Arena for lunch and a Play Day, where the events can range from informal pleasure classes to the exciting Two-Man/One-Horse Sack Race! The Play Day classes offer as much amusement to the spectators as to the competitors.

MHA's trail rides are an excellent way to meet other members and their horses. There is a team spirit and a sense of camaraderie in trail riding that is often lacking in other competitive events. Even if you don't feel "competitive", come and join us for the sheer fun of it. Trail riding is one of the most enjoyable aspects of horsemanship, as the many members who attend these three events will all agree!

I LIKE THE REST STOP BEST TOO.

 equestrian sports audiences throughout Northern California.

NEW YEAR'S EVE BASH

The Hardy 37 who were at the Sequoia
 Lodge on New Year's Eve had a grand time.
 When the word gets around, we'll need a larger place next year. The band was good, and nearly everybody danced and watched the full moon through the skylight. Chuck and Donna Koopman catered, and their food was excellent. We are looking forward to this being an annual event -- what a nice way to spend New Year's Eve.
